

Rumplestiltskin

Trace and copy.

Rumplestiltskin was a strange little man who could spin straw into gold. He helped the miller's daughter to become Queen.

The clever old farmer

An old farmer got no help from his lazy sons. So he thought of a trick. He said that there was a treasure buried somewhere in the field. The boys started digging. There was no treasure, of course, but soon the field was ploughed. Now the wheat could be sown!

Read the story above. Trace and copy it below.

An old farmer got no

help from his lazy sons.

So he thought of a trick.

He said that there was a treasure buried